

About Our Honored Speaker—Ted Conover

Raised in Denver, this Manual High School ('76) alum attended Amherst College and Cambridge University. He currently serves as the distinguished writer-in-residence in the Arthur L. Carter Journalism Institute of New York University where he teaches graduate and undergraduate courses.

Mr. Conover is a noted author with a unique writing approach; he becomes an active participant in the subculture about which he is writing. This led to him riding freight railroads across America with hobos, crossing the border with illegal immigrants, and serving as a guard at Sing Sing, among other activities. Each experience has served as the basis of a book. His most recent work is The Routes of Man: How Roads Are Changing the World and the Way We Live Today (2010). Conover's frequently contributes to the The New York Times Magazine, The New Yorker, The Atlantic Monthly and many others.
